Study Day

“HISTORIC PATHWAYS”

The River & Rowing Museum
Henley-on-Thames
Thursday, 14th March, 2013

This is your chance to be in at the launch of an exciting new project, when TVN members research the history of local footpaths, later walking and exploring those same routes.

The talks in the morning will take place in the stunning venue of the Thames Room at the R&RM, which faces directly onto the river. We have been very fortunate to attract as our lead speaker Len Banister, Chairman of the Greater London Ramblers Forum, and author of many guides to walking routes. The afternoon gives a choice of activities, taking place in and around Henley. Both walks include a riverside section, take in historic buildings and locks, and give you a good chance to see red kites!

Those who missed the training session at the Berkshire Record Office in October may choose to attend one of the training sessions provided by the BRO archivist, and combine that with an exploration of the Museum.

FEE £10 TO TVN
MEMBERS, £12
FOR NON-TVN U3A
MEMBERS

PROGRAMME

- 10.00 Registration and coffee
- 10.30 Welcome and introduction to the day - Patsy Thornton
- 10.35 “The footpaths of England” - Len Banister
- 10.55 “The Enclosures Acts and their impact on footpaths” - Roger Kendal
- 11.25 Members report on their researches into local footpaths - Avis Furness, Biddy Wombwell
