

S E Region Research Conference

'U3A and Research'

5th July 2017 at Royal Holloway University, Egham, TW20 0EX – 10.00am-4.30pm

The Conference is open to all U3As in the S E Region - cost £5 via Eventbrite:
<https://se-region-conference.eventbrite.co.uk/>

Programme

- 10.00 Registration. Join us for coffee/tea (Put up Posters)
- 10.30 Introduction – Hilvary Robinson, S E Region Trustee & Rona Hodges Research Ambassador
- 10.45 Dr Matthew Smith, Magna Carta Legacy Project Director at Royal Holloway University
'Citizens 800 years in the making' Project
- 11.35 Presentations:The Historic Footpaths of the Thames Valley, Patsy Thornton (Wokingham)
- 11.55 The Coming of the Railways and their impact on Crawley, Gill Pitt (Crawley)
- 12.15 Bees, Rodney Buckland (Meopham) (Subject Adviser for Research)
- 12.35 The effect on the people of Portsmouth of the Battle of Jutland, Carole Chapman
(Portsmouth)
- 12.55 – 1.00 Lunch (to include time to browse Posters about Research undertaken by other U3As)
- 2.00 prompt Dr Zara Bergstrom, School of Psychology, Kent University, Canterbury
'The Cognitive neuroscience of remembering and forgetting'
- 2.55 Workshops: as indicated on ticket
- Research Ethics, Rona Hodges (Canterbury) & Zara Bergstrom
 - Archival Research, Colin Mitchell (Wokingham)
 - Curious Minds, Andrea Edeleanu (Guildford)
 - The journey from interest group to research , Anne Richardson (Lancing & Sompting)
- 3.30 Presentations:The experience of interviewing end of life patients at a hospice, Helen West
- 3.50 A study of memory with U3A members, Karen Evans, (Canterbury)
- 4.10 Thanks Tea/Coffee - Safe journey home