

American Presidents

The mighty and the mediocre.

Friday, 24th September 2021 at 10.30 on Zoom

At each Inauguration US Presidents swear that they will "to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States"

This talk will seek to explore how a selection of 20th and 21st Century Presidents have fulfilled, or failed to fulfill, that lofty ambition.

Mark Lovett is back by popular demand to share more of his expertise on American history. For those of you who have not joined us for his previous events, Mark is a member of Wokingham u3a prior to which he was a teacher of History and Politics at Wellington College for 27 years. He also lectured part time at Reading University for six years and served as a Magistrate from 2006 to 2018 becoming Chairman of the Berkshire Bench in 2012 until 2014.

As Mark is a member, there is no charge for the talk. Please book electronically by clicking on the TICKETSOURCE icon below the event on www.u3atvnetwork.org.uk This is by far the best and easiest option. You will receive an acknowledgement immediately and the Zoom link a few days before the event.

If you experience any difficulty, please email the organiser Patsy Thornton at patsy@thorntac.co.uk giving your name and the u3a to which you belong.

Closing date for applications is Tuesday, 21st September

If you have not received the Zoom link by midday on Thursday, 23rd September, please check your spam / junk box before emailing the organiser as above. DO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE DAY OF THE EVENT.

To receive notification of forthcoming TVN events as soon as they are published, please email events_info@u3atvnetwork.org.uk
